

KHN Employee Dependent/Spouse Scholarship Policy

Kettering College offers a scholarship opportunity to dependents or spouses of benefit-eligible Kettering Health Network employees. The scholarship is about the equivalent of receiving 30% off tuition costs for the eligible programs.

Scholarships available:

- Students with a GPA of 3.0 or above can receive $1,725 per semester, renewable for 4 years in the following programs:
 - Bachelor of Science in Human Biology (3+2 PA students scholarship ends after 3 years)
 - Bachelor of Health Sciences in Health Care Management (blended on campus and online)
 - Bachelor of Science in Respiratory Care
- All students taking generals or pre-requisites to undergrad programs with a GPA of 3.0 or above can receive $1,725 per semester until the student enters a program

Scholarship criteria and application:

- The student must be a dependent or spouse of a benefit-eligible Kettering Health Network employee
- The student must be enrolled full time (12 credit hours minimum). If student is between 6 and 11 credit hours, the scholarship will be prorated to half the amount ($863)
- The student must maintain satisfactory academic progress for Federal Financial Aid
- Scholarship cannot be combined with other employee discounts
- The scholarship will not be awarded retroactively for any previous semesters
- A child of the KHN employee is eligible for this scholarship only until his/her 27th birthday
- As well as applying to Kettering College (kc.edu/admissions), the student must fill out a dependent/spouse scholarship application and return to Kettering College Student Accounts office
 - To fill out the dependent/spouse scholarship application student will need badge number of the spouse or parent/guardian that is the Kettering Health Network employee

Awarding time:

- Upon receipt of completed application, funds will be awarded that semester for enrolled full-time students. Scholarship will not be awarded retroactively for any previous semester.
- Scholarship approval must be renewed each semester by the dependent/spouse filling out a brief form to verify continued eligibility. This form can be found at the Kettering College Student Accounts office.
